

Highland Mennonite Brethren Church Governance Manual - FINANCES First Year Bible Student Support Application

Purpose

The purpose of our First Year Bible Student Support policy is to encourage church family members of Highland Mennonite Brethren Church (HMBC) to pursue a post-secondary Bible school or college education.

Eligibility

An incentive of up to $500 per person is available for those who are eligible for First Year Bible Student Support from HMBC. Upon approval, a cheque will be issued to the Bible school or college towards tuition fees. To be eligible, the applicant must:

- live a consistent Christian life;
- be an actively involved member or adherent of HMBC for at least one year immediately prior to attending Bible school or college;
- have been accepted as a first-year student at a Bible school or college approved by HMBC Leadership;
- report back to HMBC at the end of their first year at Bible school or college.
